

RENEWABLE ENERGY IN MICHIGAN

Conference Agenda
March 17, 2007

- 8:30 – 9:00 am Registration
- 9 – 9:15 am Welcome - Michelle Skegell, Executive Director of Pierce Cedar Creek Institute
- 9:15 – 9:45 am State of the State – Jennifer Alvarado, Executive Director of Great Lakes Renewable Energy Association
- 9:45 – 10:30 am Keynote Address: How Can I Make a Difference for a Sustainable Future? – Norman Christopher, Director of Sustainability, Grand Valley State University
- 10:30 – 10:45 am Break
Refreshments available in the Auditorium
- 10:45 – 11:45 am Concurrent Session One – Pick One
- | | |
|--|--|
| Explore Your Renewable Energy Options
Wayne Appleyard | Auditorium
Visitor Center |
| Exponential Growth: Energy, Population, and Die-Off
John Richter | Ed Classroom
Ed Building |
| Saving Energy in Your Home
Cindy Tremblay | Lab Classroom
Ed Building |
- 11:45 am - 1 pm Lunch and Networking
In order to accommodate the large group we have today, we ask that you do not save a table until you have gone through the buffet line. Also, please offer your seat to a waiting participant if you are finished eating. Thank you for your cooperation.
- 1 – 2 pm Concurrent Session Two - Pick One
- | | |
|--|--|
| Building an Energy Efficient Home
Arn McIntyre -Two-hour session, continues into session three | Ed Classroom
Ed Building |
| Solar & Wind Energy: Michigan’s Alternative Future
Mark Bauer | Auditorium
Visitor Center |
| Biodiesel Workshop
Jim Leidel | Lab Classroom
Ed Building |

2 – 2:10 pm	Break Refreshments available in Auditorium
2:10 – 3:10 pm	Concurrent Session Three - Pick One
	Building an Energy Efficient Home (part 2)	Ed Classroom Ed Building
	Energy Education Resources for Teachers Chris Tarr	Lab Classroom Ed Building
	Peak Oil: Options for the low-oil future. John Richter	Auditorium Visitor Center
3:20 – 3:50 pm	General Session: The Next Generation in Energy Efficient and Renewable Energy Technologies John Barrie	Auditorium Visitor Center
3:50 – 4 pm	Closing

Please return evaluation forms to registration desk prior to leaving. Thank you!

Today's conference has been underwritten by a Community Energy Projects Grant, through the Michigan Energy Office.